cloth which he presented. Before he would allow the 700 to go, however, O-oka retired with the porter who had been robbed to an inner chamber, and he asked the porter to look over the 700 pieces of cotton cloth and see if he could identify any of them as having been once in the pack he had carried. Since every manufacturer of cotton cloth in Yeddo always marked the selvage of each strip with a little red trademark stamp the porter searched the edges of the many strips of cloth for a stamp similar to that borne on the cloth of which he had been robbed. He found that two of the pieces of cloth brought to pay the mayor's fine bore the stamp of his plundered pack. Instantly Mayor O-oka gave orders for the arrest of the two men who had brought this cloth. They confessed to the robbery, and all of the cloth they had taken from the sleeping porter's pack was restored to him.-Japan Magazine.

A common "greaser," armed to the teeth, flee in "An Oliver Typewriter in Every Home!" terror from a small dog, while he would fearlessly attack any man with his knife or his machete.

A FAMOUS RACE.

The Greatest Steamboat Contest on the Mississippi River. The greatest race ever run on the Mississippl was between the Natchez, a boat built in Cincinnati and commanded by Captain T. P. Leathers, Address and a New Albany boat, the Robert E. Lee, under Captain John W. Cannon, of all her upper works likely to catch of New Orleans. The Natchez followed five minutes later. The race had been advertised in advance and was was the lion of the hour. The business man gave a banquet in his honor. -Travel Magazine.

Not a Savant. A Harvard man told at a dinner in Cambridge a story about ignorance. "Some sailors were being banqueted in Philadelphia at St. George's hall,"

" 'Waiter, bring up that 'ere chande-"That ain't a chandeller,' the waiter "'Well, never mind what it is,' said the sailor. Bring it up. We ain't all

Both Affected. "Whenever she gets to thinking how much they're in debt it affects her nerves. "Huh! The way it affects her husband is singular." "How singular?" "Just singular; it affects his 'nerve." He tried to borrow a hundred from me today."-Catholic Standard and Times.

"That's no answer. Proposals never do come in words. They consist of "He's a military looking young chap." sighs, 'hem, haws and gurgles."--His Wife's Mother, of Course.
